Notes:
1. Coloured areas are public land. White areas are Commonwealth, local government or private land. See chapter 3 of the discussion paper for a description of the current public land use categories and sub-categories.
2. This map is based on a GIS layer created by VEAC depicting government-accepted public land use recommendations and subsequent government decisions.
3. Small blocks (generally less than one hectare) may not be visible at this scale. A higher-resolution map showing the finer detail can be viewed at www.veac.vic.gov.au.
4. Includes most parks under schedule 3 of the National Parks Act and national heritage parks.
5. Includes marine park, and marine and coastal park.
6. Includes plantation areas available for once only harvest.
