Last Name: Hedjes

Description:

To whom it may concern. After you've finished reading this go and tell your children or grandchildren what the government wish to do in your backyard. Take them to your local anorexic park which your thieving council have neglected for years and then ask yourself how good you had it when you where able to venture anywhere you dreamed of in your younger years. How dare the state and federal governments treat the honest hard working AUSTRALIAN like sheep. We've all made this country as GREAT as it is, and we all deserve our human right to travel, explore, learn, and respect one another. I truly believe that there is an agenda in government to quash our AUSSIE SPIRIT and turn us all into miserable, filthy, uneducated spuds. Instead of leading by example and showing integrity, knowledge, empowering the nation, living without paranoia, honestly respecting one another and the land these criminals, thieves, liars, are selling the country to china. This is just one of many ploys to mess with people in the hope everyone runs around like headless chooks. The parlamantarians are obnoxious weeks that wilt in the sunlight and stay hidden went ready to be pulled out, until a different day raises them up ready to sting the next unsuspecting victim.... Regards Tom Hedjes
