Description:

I am strongly against the notion of turning these State Forests into National Parks. The majority of people using these forests are responsible and care for the environment. And those who get regular enjoyment from that space, look after it and want to be available for their children to enjoy. By restricting the good people, you will be inviting more of the bad people to abuse the forest environment. And they will do so knowing they can more easily get away with it. These forest areas need more eyes and ears, not less. As an amateur prospector, I see the result of the illegal dumping of rubbish. However, the situation would be far worse if weren't for people like me keeping an eye out and being a presence in the forest. Thank you.
