Description:

Hi, I'm a fellow Australian and although I'm only a teenager, I'm quite aware of what's going on and I'm not only devastated on what's going on, I'm actually appalled that people are trying to close these public parks. My family, friends and I treat and respect the bush and really appreciate it. Not only is Australia known for the dry outback, it's known for the bush so why on earth would you want to take it away. My friends, family and I love the bush and always go out there, whether it be camping, motorbike riding, horse riding or 4wd, we do all of those! Whenever we're out there we've always respected the land and the wildlife, we've followed all rules, always picked up rubbish and put nobody and nothing in harms way. I'm begging you, I'm getting down on my hands and knees and telling you that not only would you be taking away peoples lifestyles, you'd be taking away peoples jobs, homes and happiness. All you people trying to shut the bush down, maybe go out there for a week and actually see for yourself what you'd be taking away from people
