Description:

I only have very few characters to write so I'm not going to use them up. We use the bush to hunt and gather as is our right. We use the bush as a public domain. I need the bush, to calm my head and those of my kids, that's our happy place. Do you realise the implications of locking up bush? I've been there as a volunteer through the major fires. I was on burnt out car patrol, checking every damn vehical I was hard because you knew potentially you may find a body. You were left on high alert and I can tell you I never want to experience this EVER AGAIN! It is horrible!
